Founder & CEO at The Well Firm | Clinical Psychotherapist | Lawyer
Well-Being

Washington, District of Columbia, United States

Summary

Jacqueline is a Clinical Psychotherapist in the Washington, DC area providing clinical services to adults experiencing anxiety, depression, relationship issues, high stress work environments, and struggles coping with life transitions in both public and private ecosystems. Using psychotherapy, as well as techniques based in Cognitive Behavioral Theory, Jacqueline is able to work with clients to identify and disrupt unproductive thought and behavioral patterns, so clients can appropriately manage and navigate daily stressors.

Jacqueline's diverse background in clinical social work, psychotherapy, crisis management, racial justice, and special abuse investigations allows her to fully understand her clients, the experiences of a demanding work environment, and the need to have employees be their best selves so they can properly perform and succeed in the workplace.

Jacqueline is a Licensed Independent Clinical Social Worker, a Certified Clinical Trauma Professional, and a Certified Clinical Stress Management Consultant.
